

Exercises

138.1 Complete the sentences using a verb in the correct form.

- Here's a key so that you can let yourself in.
- Liz doesn't like cooking, so she                                  out a lot.
- Amy isn't living in this apartment any more. She                                  out a few weeks ago.
- If you're in our part of town, you should                                  in and say hello.
- When I                                  in at the airport, I was told my flight would be delayed.
- There was an article in the paper that I wanted to keep, so I                                  it out.
- I wanted to iron some clothes, but there was nowhere to                                  the iron in.
- I hate                                  in questionnaires.
- Steve was upset because he'd been                                  out of the team.
- Be careful! The water's not very deep here, so don't                                  in.
- If you write in pencil and you make a mistake, you can                                  it out.
- Paul started doing a Spanish course, but he                                  out after a few weeks.

138.2 Complete the sentences with in, into, out or out of.

- I've got a new flat. I'm moving in on Friday.
- We checked                                  the hotel as soon as we arrived.
- As soon as we arrived at the hotel, we checked                                 .
- The car stopped and the driver got                                 .
- Thieves broke                                  the house while we were away.
- Why did Sarah drop                                  college? Did she fail her exams?

138.3 Complete the sentences using a verb + in or out (of).

- Lisa walked to the edge of the pool, dived in and swam to the other end.
- Not all the runners finished the race. Three of them                                 .
- I went to see Joe and Sophie in their new house. They                                  last week.
- I've told you everything you need to know. I don't think I've                                  anything.
- Some people in the crowd started singing. Then a few more people                                  and soon everybody was singing.
- We go to restaurants a lot. We like                                 .
- Don't be                                  by him. If I were you, I wouldn't believe anything he says.
- I                                  to see Laura a few days ago. She was fine.
- A: Can we meet tomorrow morning at 10?
B: Probably. I'm supposed to go to another meeting, but I think I can                                  it.

138.4 Complete the sentences. Use the word in brackets in the correct form.

- A: The fridge isn't working.
B: That's because you haven't plugged it in. (plug)
- A: What do I have to do with these forms?
B:                                  and send them to this address. (fill)
- A: I've made a mistake on this form.
B: That's all right. Just                                  and correct it. (cross)
- A: Did you believe the story they told you?
B: Yes, I'm afraid they completely                                 . (take)
- A: Have you been to that new club in Bridge Street?
B: We wanted to go there a few nights ago, but they wouldn't                                  because we weren't members. (let)